Quotes

Education is what remains after one has forgotten what one has learned in school.

Albert Einstein

I wish my school days could have dragged on a little longer, or that I could go back and do it again later in life.

Clara Delevingne

He who opens a school door, closes a prison.

Victor Hugo.

We are taught you must blame your father, your sisters, your brothers, the school, the teachers – but never never blame yourself. It's never your fault. But it's always your fault, bacuase if you wanted to change you're the one who has got to change.

Katherine Hepburn

When I was 5 years old, my mother always told me that happiness was the key to life. When I went to school , they asked me what I wanted to be when I grew up. I wrote down 'happy'. They told me I didn't understand the assignment, and I told them they didn't understand Life.

John Lennon

The philosophy of the school room in one generation will be the philosophy of government in the next.

Abraham Lincoln
